

GALLI PRODUCE CO. INC.

07/26/2022

Avocado prices down considerably due to the inclusion of Jalisco as a certified supplier to the US!!

Avocados;

As it was, Michoacán was the only Mexican State allowed to ship Avocados in to the US. Jalisco has now won certification after 10 years of a certification process.

The market reacted immediately to the new supply stream.

Citrus;

The Valencia Oranges have been very good, Prices are in the mid to high range and showing good color and flavor. Imported Navels and Tangerines inconsistent container arrivals at this time.

Few Blood Oranges are around.

APPLES & PEARS

Some of the softer varieties, Gala and Golden Apples did not store well this season.

Fuji's are holding up better as New Crop will be starting in mid August.

California Bartletts are in as well.

Organic Gala, Granny Smith, Fuji and Pears will be back in by next week!

BERRIES

Strawberries have recovered from some heat related issues.

California Raspberries and Blackberries are stable after the Spring to Summer variety shift.

Blueberries are from California, Mexico, Baja and even Florida. This market has been up and down mostly due to Transportation issues.

Seasonals;

The California Stone Fruit season is in full swing and quality has been stellar.

Peaches, Nectarines, Plums. Pluot Plum Varieties are showing up

Figs, Black Mission, Kadota, Brown Turkey are set to start their second season.

Northwest Cherries are in but command a stiff price.
